

Einstein Healthcare Network
Behavioral Health
&
The Freda Kraftsow Sacks
Family Resource Center

Invite you to a screening of

“Suicide: The Ripple Effect”

Directed by Dr. John Draper, National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

Tuesday, November 27, 2018

Doors open 5:00pm Screening 5:30pm
Post-screening panel discussion to follow

Gouley Auditorium

at Einstein Medical Center Philadelphia
5501 Old York Road, Philadelphia, PA 19141

Complimentary self-parking available in the Korman Parking Pavilion

Advance reservations preferred by emailing events@einstein.edu Subject: Sacks Film

CEU credits will be available for social workers through Widener School of Social Work.

For more information, please contact Kimberly Gross at (215) 456-6172

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Free admission

Free parking

Free healthful snacks

Free beverages

Free depression and anxiety screenings

Sponsored by:

The Freda Kraftsow Sacks
Family Resource Center

Partnering Agencies:

- American Foundation for Suicide Prevention
- Philadelphia Department of Behavioral Health & Intellectual disAbility Services
- Family Resource Network
- National Alliance on Mental Illness
- Resources For Human Development
- Suicide Task Force of Philadelphia